Land Bank Merger

Federal Land Bank Association stockholders in Utah have approved the merger of the FLBAs of central Utah, northern Utah, and Richfield into a single association effective Jan. 1.

The main office for the merged FLBA of Utah is in Orem, with Wayne W. Probst, former President of the FLBA of Central Utah, serving as Chief Executive Officer.

Ross S. Wright, former President of the FLBA of Northern Utah, has been named Senior Vice President for the association and will be located in Orem. Duane P. Memmott, former President of the FLBA of Richfield, has been named Regional Vice President, as has Kenneth L. Wright, formerly with the FLBA of Central Utah.

Probst has been with the Farm Credit System for over 22 years. Originally employed by the Federal Land Bank of Berkeley, he served as an appraiser assigned to the states of Arizona, Nevada and Utah.
